RUSSIAN TOURISM GASTRONOMY WEEK IN JAPAN-2018

In the period from November 27 to December 2, 2018, the Russian Tourism Gastronomy Week in Japan will be held.

During the visit of Vladimir Putin, the President of the Russian Federation, to Japan in December 2016 and his meetings with the Prime Minister of Japan Shinzō Abe, the parties of negotiations came to the decision about holding the Year of Russia in Japan and the Year of Japan in Russia as one of the tools of widening of Japanese-Russian humanitarian exchange.

In frames of the Year, the outstanding events are planned, including different areas of bilateral relationships — politics, economics, culture, science, education, youth exchange, sport, sharing experience of municipal entities and many others. On 21 September 2017 in Tokyo Oleg Safonov, Chief of the Federal Agency for Tourism (Rostourism), and Ryoichi Matsuyama, Chief of Japan National Tourism Organization (JNTO) signed a “Memorandum of cooperation in organization of Weeks of Gastronomy and Tourism”. International Center of Wine and Gastronomy (Moscow) is officially authorized to provide support on the organization of the Week on behalf of the Russian Federation. Russian Tourism Gastronomy Week in Japan is included in item 71 of the Consolidated programme of the Year of Russia in Japan on January 25, 2018, approved by the government of the Russian Federation.

International Center of Wine and Gastronomy (ICWAG, www.icwag.com) has a saturated experience of holding similar events in different countries of the world within the “Russian Gastronomy Weeks” project (www.rusgw.com/en):

Holding of the Russian Tourism Gastronomy Week in Japan is supported by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, the Ministry of Culture of the Russian Federation, the Federal Agency for Tourism (Rostourism), the Federal Agency for Ethnic Affairs, the Embassy of the Russian Federation in Japan, the Federation of Restaurateurs and Hoteliers of Russia, the Russian National Culinary Association, the Union of Winegrowers and Winemakers of Russia and other major Russian professional associations and societies.

From the Japanese side the Week is supported by the Japan Tourism Agency (JTA), the Japan National Tourism Organization (JNTO), the Japan Association of Tourism Agents (JATA), the All Japan Food Association (AJFA). The Official Air Partner of the Week (協力) is the Japan Airlines (JAL), the national air carrier and the flagship airline of Japan.

The project has an official support of the United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO).

The CONCEPT of the project is aimed at:

- ✓ fortification of cultural and business relationships between Russia and Japan;
- ✓ promotion of Russia and Japan in general and its separate regions as the attractive tourism destinations and revealing their potential for the tourism development;
- ✓ presentation of dishes of Russian national cuisine, regional F&B products for Japanese audience;
- ✓ attraction of attention to regional investment projects of hospitality industry;
- ✓ contribution to the growth of sales volume and export turnover of F&B products and services between Russia and Japan.

Russian Gastronomy Weeks (RGW) consistently garner the most positive feedbacks from the officials of member-countries, business representatives, heads of the professional organizations, opinion makers, experts and wide audience. The events of the RGW are widely covered in Russian and foreign media of different specialty and format.
